

Standard I: Professionalism

Standard I is the first pillar of the Code and Standards.

It covers law, independence, misrepresentation, and misconduct.

A. Knowledge of the Law

Know and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Follow the stricter rule when requirements conflict.

B. Independence and Objectivity

Use reasonable care and judgment to remain independent.

Gifts or favors must not compromise analysis.

C. Misrepresentation

Do not misrepresent analysis, credentials, or performance.

Plagiarism is a form of misrepresentation.

D. Misconduct

Honesty is a professional requirement, not a private option.

Fraud and deceit reflect adversely on the profession.
